THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRIMATI SUSHMA SWARAJ): (a) to (c) The operation of the cable television networks in the country are governed by the provisions of the Cable Television Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995 and Rules framed thereunder. The Act, inter-alia, provides for manadatory registration of cable operators and does not envisage any restrictions on the number of operators in a given area. Nor is there any legal provision to regulate subscription fee charged by the various channels or cable operators. In case of violation of the provisions of the Cable Television Networks (Regulation) Act, action is to be taken by the authorised officers i.e. DM/SDM/Commissioner of Police and such other officers as may be notified by the State/Central Government. In addition, the Chairman of Inter-Media Publicity Co-ordination Committee (IMPCC), of each State, can receive complaints against the cable television network operators and follow them up with the authorised officers for appropriate redressal.
